post European Union

After disintegration of the European Community there is no return to national states but rather a move towards European Regions.

Based on the philosophy of Leopold Kohr ("big is bad") copyright 2011 by Guenther Witzany

"Europe's political and economic disempowerment and its fragmentation in subnational units are Europe's hope" (Leopold Kohr)